

Fly Your Research to Space

Discover the opportunities to support the evolution of your space-related research in entrepreneurial opportunities

Politecnico di Torino
Dipartimento di Elettronica e Telecomunicazioni

Date: 6th November 2024

Time: 17:30-19:00

Venue: DET, Politecnico di Torino
Location: Sala Maxwell (5th floor)

C.so Castelfidardo 39, Turin

Space Economy is booming and so are the opportunities to leverage on high quality research results and patents to jump into the market.

New paradigms in the design of space systems require that ICT technologies for space, data and signal processing, new applications and services being fully part of the process, playing the role of innovation creators

Discover how through instruments already in place in the Turin ecosystem you can get support to evolve your ideas towards the market

Speakers:

Leo Italiano - Program Manager ESA Business Incubation Center Turin

Technology Transfer Office - Politecnico di Torino

Beatrice Bozzone - Argotec Spacepark

Meet the start-ups: refreshments and networking with ICT start-ups working in the space domain

OSMIUM
RESILIENT SOLUTIONS

STRATOBOTIC

LOKI

SYNCHROPAL
Timing and synchronization

The event is particularly aimed at PhD students, researchers under grant, RTD-A, RTD-B, but it is open to all those interested in the topic. Participation is recognized as 1 hour of hard skills for PhD students of the IEEC college.

The event will be in English

To participate, registration is required using the form accessible by scanning the QR code before October 28, 2024.

Moderator: Fabio Dovis, Coordinator of the Departmental Commission for Technology Transfer.